

Scan 58 woodburner

Customer Aspirations: A wall hanging fire

Customer Requirements: Flue needs to be taken through the outside wall

This fire could have been flued though the rear of the fire and into an existing chimney however in this situation the flue was taken from the top of the Scan 58 and then out through the external wall to regulation height. A bespoke heath was fitted after the picture onto the corner of the room.

